Inclusion in Writing Groups Directory

We maintain a directory of writing groups, to help writers find a group near where they live. If you'd like your group to be included in our directory, then please use this form to give us the details of the entry and how you'd like it to appear.

Note that the directory is publicly available from our website, so please choose your consent options with care.

Please fill in this form and send it to us, using one of the methods described below.

By Email

Fill in the form to make a completed electronic document.

This can be done with suitable software, or may involve printing out, filling in on paper, then re-scanning.

Sent an email message, with the completed form document as an attachment, to `membership@nawg.co.uk`.

By Post

Print out the document and fill it in on paper.

Send by post to the following address.

```
Membership Secretary
5 Wallington Court
Kingston Park

Please indicate how your group would like to be contacted by potential new members.

- ◯ The group may be contacted using the details you provide in the next part of the form.
- ◯ The group may be contacted using NAWG as a proxy.

  With this option you need not fill in the contact details. We'll pass on enquiries about membership of your group, using the details we have on record, which won't be disclosed.
- ◯ This is a closed group. We don't wish to be contacted by potential new members.

Please tell us what information you'd like conveyed in the directory entry.

Tick the consent boxes to indicate which information is to be included in the publicly available directory. Any consent boxes unticked will mean that information will be excluded from your group's directory entry, but may be useful to NAWG in case we need to contact you.

* The group name and postcode (which may be just the initial district part, e.g. SM1) are the minimum we need to identify and locate your group. The directory entries are organised geographically, in order to help potential new members find one near where they live.
