BOOKING YOUR WORKSHOPS

Please use the course codes printed alongside the workshop names in the festival brochure. See pages 5-17 (e.g. MC-SAT-01). Every effort will be made to allocate you to your first choice but please give alternative codes in case the session is already full. Total numbers are limited this year, and numbers in any one session will be restricted to keep groups to a workable size, so early booking is advisable. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, NAWG reserve the right to change workshops.
